6. If you own a house or real estate, for each property that you own, the following items:
 - a. the most recent statement for the mortgage company (each mortgage company if there is more than one lien against the property);
 - b. any correspondence from the mortgage company or their attorneys that you have received in the last 30 days (if you have received a notice of certified mail, make sure that you pick up the certified mail from the post office);
 - c. the deed of trust (in your closing documents when you purchased the property);
 - d. original loan documents;
 - e. homeowners insurance.
7. If you owe a child support or alimony obligation, a copy of the court order which created the obligation. If you have been contacted by any child support enforcement agency or former spouse regarding past-due child support, please bring the correspondence and supporting documents, such as decrees, orders, judgments and wage withholding orders.

8. Copies of all life insurance policies that have a cash value. Term policies are not required.

9. All lawsuits and judgments (including divorces if they were finalized in the last 6 years).

10. Copies of divorce decrees if you have been divorced in the last 3 years.

11. All executory contracts, leases, contracts for deeds, and lease-purchase contracts.

12. If you have been contacted by the IRS, please bring the correspondence and all supporting documents.
